On October 17, 2022, Robert Hintzke filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that he suffered from anaphylaxis within four hours of receipt of an influenza ("flu") vaccination on September 3, 2020. Petition at 1. On September 28, 2023, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 26.

Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs (“Motion”) filed December 15, 2023, ECF No. 31. In accordance with General Order No. 9, counsel for Petitioner represents that Petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses. Motion at 1. Respondent did not file a response to Petitioner’s Motion.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner’s request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates. Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. Motion, at 20 - 28. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney’s fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT Petitioner’s Motion for attorney’s fees and costs. I award a total of $22,878.01 (representing $22,289.20 in fees plus $588.81 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner’s Counsel Edward Kraus. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³
